

Long Island Community Foundation
2014 Grants Totaling $1,175,800

DISASTER PREPAREDNESS & SANDY RELIEF

American Red Cross Greater New York Region - $10,000 (in a collaborative effort with the NY Community Trust) to help downstate nonprofits develop disaster preparedness and resiliency plans.

Health & Welfare Council of Long Island - $25,000 to develop a regional disaster recovery communications system.

Mental Health Association of New York City - $10,000 (in a collaborative effort with the NY Community Trust and the Westchester Community Foundation) to train downstate nonprofits in mental health first aid.

Touro College Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center - $ 20,000 to create a policy paper on Super Storm Sandy disaster relief practices.

Vision Long Island - $15,000 to support the Friends of Long Island project, a network of civic and neighborhood associations formed to support the recovery and rebuilding efforts of residents affected by Super Storm Sandy

EMPOWERING THROUGH EDUCATION & ARTS

Centro Cultural Hispano de Oyster Bay, East Norwich Y Vecinidades - $20,000 for academic enrichment and college admission preparation to Latino high school students and to empower parents to support their children in school.

City Of Glen Cove Youth Bureau - $20,000 to support continued operation of the Glen Cove After 3 program for elementary and middle school students.

Cradle of Aviation Museum - $20,000 to create an Aerospace & Advanced Manufacturing Career Pathways Guidebook for high need school districts in Nassau County.

East End Arts and Humanities Council - $15,000 to continue the Jumpstart artists' entrepreneurial skills training series.

Friends of LIMSAT - $30,000 to promote STEM on Long Island and connect youth with STEM education and internship programs.

Hofstra University Museum - $25,000 to continue the Art Travelers program in five high-need school districts in Nassau County.

Long Island Jobs With Justice - $20,000 to provide college admissions and financial aid training to high school educators and immigrant families.

Parrish Art Museum - $20,000 to provide arts education and programs to economically and culturally diverse students on Long Island's East End.

The Viscardi Center - $20,000 for an alternative education, vocational, and social skills program for at-risk high school students.

HEALTH & MENTAL HEALTH

Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Rockville Centre - $25,000 to provide mental health services for recently arrived immigrant children on Long Island.

Hudson River Healthcare - $25,000 for a regional nurse manager to oversee training and quality control at Suffolk County clinics.

Peconic Bay Medical Center - $25,000 to help low-income Latino immigrants in Suffolk County get cancer care services.

South Nassau Communities Hospital - $50,000 for a patient navigator to link underserved patients in Long Beach to medical services.

HELPING NONPROFITS TO BE MORE EFFECTIVE

ADELPHI UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK Long Island Center for Nonprofit Leadership - $20,000 for a leadership development program for nonprofit professionals and community leaders of color.

Long Island Civic Engagement Table - $20,000 for a training program for Long Island's emerging community organizers.

Long Island Crisis Center - $10,000 to evaluate the effectiveness of a crisis counseling hotline.

Shinnecock Nation Cultural Center & Museum - $17,500 for the first year of a three-year capacity building initiative to help with board development and strategic business planning.

HUNGER & HOMELESSNESS

Amagansett Food Institute - $20,000 to provide Long Island food pantries with fresh locally sourced organic produce.

Christ Episcopal Church - $8,800 to upgrade a church kitchen to meet required commercial standards for a local feeding program.

Interfaith Nutrition Network - $20,000 to continue a social service referral and employment readiness program in a network of soup kitchens.

Island Harvest - $25,000 to continue support for the senior mobile food pantry at the Glen Cove Housing Authority.

Long Island Council Of Churches - $25,000 to fund an emergency food program for low-income Long Islanders.

Peconic Community Council - $20,000 to link homeless individuals on the East End to supportive housing.

Wyandanch Homes and Property Development - $20,000 for supportive housing services for chronically homeless families in Suffolk County.

PEACE OF MIND FOR VETERANS

Concern For Independent Living - $25,000 for mental health and supportive services for formerly-homeless veterans residing at Liberty Village.

Mental Health Association Of Nassau County - $25,000 to train mental health professionals providing clinical treatment to veterans.

New York Legal Assistance Group - $20,000 to provide free legal services to veterans with mental health problems at the Northport VA Hospital.

North Shore LIJ Health System Foundation - $20,000 to provide mental health services to veterans and their families.

PROTECTING & DEVELOPING LI'S FUTURE GEN/YOUTH & FAMILY DEVELOPMENT

Child Abuse Prevention Services - $20,000 to develop a web-based resource to help Long Island schools implement a bullying prevention program.

Connecting Our Paths Eternally (COPE) - $5,000 for a healing therapy workshop series targeted to families who have lost a child.

Family Residences and Essential Enterprises - $20,000 for job training and support services to prepare foster care children for independent living.

HERSTORY Writers Workshop - $20,000 to mobilize and empower Long Island's youth and community residents to advocate for juvenile justice reform.

Hofstra University Center for Civic Engagement - $15,000 to help Roosevelt youth protect themselves from bullying and other forms of violence.

North Shore Child and Family Guidance Center - $15,000 for a mental health wellness program for Latina teenagers in distress and their families.

Pal-O-Mine Equestrian, Inc. - $10,000 for an equine assisted education and life skills program for young men in foster care.

SCO Family of Services - $20,000 to develop a therapeutic-based curriculum addressing emotional violence and bullying in girls who have been victims of abuse.

Sunshine Center, Inc. - $20,000 to strengthen the life and social skills of high-risk high school students in an alternative learning environment.

Victims Information Bureau of Suffolk (VIBS) - $17,500 for trauma counseling and support services for young children and caretakers who are victims of domestic violence.

Women's Fund of Long Island - $20,000 to continue a leadership development program for young women.

SUSTAINABLE PLANNING & PROTECTION OF LONG ISLAND LAND & WATERS

American Farmland Trust - $20,000 to work with Suffolk County farmers on conservation practices that will reduce nitrogen use while maintaining farm profitability.

Camsett Foundation, Inc. - $15,000 to continue an invasive plant management program at Caumsett State Historic Park Preserve.

Choice For All - $20,000 to launch a two-year community environmental justice campaign in Roosevelt.

Grassroots Environmental Education - $20,000 to raise public awareness about Long Island's water quality problems and solutions.

Harvard University Graduate School of Design - $10,000 to conduct research and develop local solutions to Long Island's environmental, social, and economic challenges.

Molloy College - $15,000 to advocate for clean energy on Long Island.

National Fish and Wildlife Foundation - $20,000 for a funder collaborative to develop shared strategies to protect the Long Island Sound and its watershed.

Peconic Green Growth - $20,000 to guide a clustered wastewater treatment pilot project in the hamlet of Orient.

Renewable Energy Long Island - $20,000 to help the Town of East Hampton develop and implement a renewable energy action plan.

Seatuck Environmental Association - $20,000 to restore migratory fish habitat in Long Island's tributaries.

VISION Long Island - $20,000 for advocacy and coalition-building that support transit-oriented development.

IMPROVING OUR NEIGHBORHOODS

Community Development Corporation of Long Island - $25,000 to build community support for the development of an affordable rental housing community in Copiague.

Hofstra University, National Center for Suburban Studies - $10,000 to produce a report describing local policies and public opinion regarding accessory housing units on Long Island.

MHANY Management - $25,000 for a tenant education, outreach, and advocacy program for residents of Hempstead and New Cassel.

Regional Plan Association - $22,000 for data collection and analysis on Long Island's affordable housing needs.

PROMOTING ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT THROUGH ARTS

Long Island Arts Alliance - $20,000 for continued support of the Arts Alive Festival that encourages collaboration, showcases Long Island's cultural assets, and fosters economic development.