

Mary Beth Guyther
Program Officer
Long Island Community Foundation

Mary Beth joined the LICF team in April 2012 as a program officer. She manages the Foundation's grantmaking in Health, Hunger, Arts and Technical Assistance. In her role at the Foundation, she is building on LICF's knowledge of our community's strengths, challenges, resources and needs. Mary Beth is also responsible for grants and projects for the Long Island Unitarian Universalist Fund.

Mary Beth has an extensive background working for nonprofits, including stints at the Enterprise Foundation and Girls Incorporated. Prior to LICF she worked at the Mentoring Partnership of Long Island as director of Development and Community Outreach. Mary Beth has also served as an advisory committee member of the Long Island Unitarian Universalist Fund.

A graduate of Northwestern University, she received her B.S. in 1992. Her professional certifications include the Emerging Leaders Program at Baruch College in 2003 followed with completion of Columbia University's Graduate School of Business Executive Education Program in 2007.

Mary Beth is a long time resident in the Town of Huntington.
