

LONG ISLAND COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
2018 GRANTS TOTALING $1,463,500

CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILIES

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Long Island, Inc., $16,000 to match young people in Nassau County who are suffering from emotional difficulties with caring mentors.

Boy Scouts of America - Theodore Roosevelt Council, $15,000 to expand the Scoutsreach Program to additional elementary schools in communities of color.

Choice For All, $20,000 to increase healthy food access in Roosevelt.

Interfaith Nutrition Network, $20,000 to continue connecting soup kitchen clients with social services.

Island Harvest, $20,000 to continue support for the senior mobile food pantry at the Glen Cove Housing Authority.

Lighthouse Mission Outreach, Inc., $15,000 to support a mobile food outreach program serving nine communities in Suffolk County.

Long Island Cares, Inc., $25,000 for the Nassau Service Center food pantry in Freeport.

Molloy College, $15,000 to operate a mentoring and leadership development program for Latina teenagers.

The Butterfly Effect Project, $17,000 for a leadership and character development program for adolescent girls from the East End of Long Island.

The Journey of Difference, $15,000 for a life skills and workforce development program for at-risk young adults from Central Islip and Brentwood.

The Sunshine Center, Inc., $20,000 to strengthen the life and social skills of high-risk high school students in an alternative learning environment.

Timothy Hill Children's Ranch, $20,000 for a residential program to help court-involved young adults successfully transition.

Urban League of Long Island, $15,000 for a job readiness program for black and Latino youth in Suffolk County.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT & ENVIRONMENT

Atlantic Marine Conservation Society, $17,000 to raise awareness and change public behavior to reduce harmful effects of marine debris.

Catchafire, Inc., $25,000 renewal of Catchafire Program for our community partners.

CDCLI Funding Corporation, $20,000 to continue administering a loan program to assist low-to-moderate income Suffolk County homeowners to replace their failing septic systems.

Central Nassau Guidance & Counseling Services, $30,000 to continue support system upgrades and training to improve behavioral health care delivery.

Citizens Campaign Fund for the Environment, $25,000 for continued support of a campaign to ban products containing the chemical 1,4 dioxane.

Concerned Citizens of Montauk, $20,000 to support a public education and advocacy campaign to improve and protect the water quality of Lake Montauk and Fort Pond.

Connecticut Fund for the Environment, $20,000 to help local groups collect data on the health of local bays and engage communities to protect them.

Defend H2O, Inc., $20,000 to advocate for natural solutions to coastal hazards and climate change.

Economic Opportunity Commission of Nassau County, Inc., $20,000 to use digital assessments to better prepare preschool-aged children for school.

Family Community Life Center, $20,000 to continue a public outreach campaign to build support for a mixed-use development in the hamlet of Riverhead.

Peconic Green Growth, $20,000 to advance water conservation strategies for the Town of Southold.

Peconic Land Trust, $25,000 to help Long Island's farm and fishing industries remain viable despite increasing operating costs.

Pro Bono Partnership, Inc., $20,000 to continue to provide pro bono legal services to Long Island nonprofits.

Sisters of St. Joseph, $20,000 for the design and construction of an innovative and alternative wastewater treatment system in Western Suffolk.

Surfrider Foundation, $18,000 to monitor water quality in Southampton and East Hampton towns and engage residents in restoration solutions.

The Trust For Public Land, $25,000 to develop a feasibility plan for the Long Island Empire State Trail Extension Project.

COMMUNITY RESPONSE & SPECIAL PROJECTS

Long Island Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence, $25,000 to launch an alternative to incarceration program for individuals suffering from substance abuse disorders.

Choice For All , $28,000 for a non-partisan, get-out-the-vote effort in Roosevelt, NY.

Fiscal Policy Institute, $35,000 Long Island Opioid Use - Economic Impacts.

Long Island Civic Engagement Table, $155,000 for a non-partisan, get-out-the-vote effort.

Long Island Progressive Coalition, $40,000 for a non-partisan get-out-the-vote effort.

Long Island Racial Equity Collaborative Fund, $25,000 to pool local resources to address racial disparities on Long Island.

Long Island Sound Stewardship Fund, $25,000 to pool local philanthropic resources dedicated to protecting and restoring the Long Island Sound.

Make The Road New York, $40,000 for a non-partisan get-out-the-vote effort.

New York Communities for Change, $40,000 for a non-partisan, get-out-the-vote effort.

Planned Parenthood of Nassau County, Inc., $30,000 for a non-partisan, get-out-the-vote effort.

EDUCATION, ARTS & HUMANITIES

Children's Maritime Museum at Port Jefferson d/b/a Long Island Explorium, $15,000 to strengthen the ability of sixth grade teachers to teach science in the North Babylon School District.

Children's Museum of the East End, $15,000 for a science-based mentoring program for Latino students.

City of Glen Cove Youth Bureau, $20,000 for an after school and summer program for elementary and middle school students in Glen Cove.

Espoir Youth Program, $20,000 for an afterschool STEM enrichment program for Westbury's bilingual students.

Five Towns Community Center, Inc., $20,000 to develop a comprehensive media and performing arts program.

Girls Inc. of Long Island, $20,000 to provide life skills and academic enrichment programs for girls in Central Islip and William Floyd middle schools.

Grenville Baker Boys & Girls Club, $20,000 for a college preparation program targeting vulnerable teens from Locust Valley and Glen Cove High Schools.

IAHV-YES! for Schools, $15,000 for a social and emotional learning program at three schools in Freeport.

Long Island University (Tilles Center), $15,000 to expand an arts education program serving elementary schools in Freeport, Roosevelt, and Glen Cove.

New Community Cinema Club, Inc. d/b/a Cinema Arts Centre, $12,500 to support an educational film series that fosters dialogue and action around social issues, while attracting people to downtown Huntington.

Patchogue Arts Council, Inc., $20,000 to further the revitalization of the village of Patchogue through a series of arts events.

Project Morry, $20,000 for a leadership development and college preparation program targeting students from North Amityville and Copiague School districts.

Sag Harbor Partnership, Inc., $20,000 for film equipment that will enable the reconstructed Sag Harbor Cinema to engage the town's diverse community.

Usdan Center for the Creative and Performing Arts, $5,000 for a summer program for needy and worthy student musicians from the Brentwood School District.

Virtual Enterprises International, $25,000 for an in-school business simulation program in the Sewanahaka School District.

HEALTH & MENTAL HEALTH

Brookhaven Memorial Hospital Medical Center, $25,000 to educate staff to care for victims of sexual assault.

Catholic Health Services of Long Island, $50,000 to deploy health coaches to help diabetes patients get more involved in their treatment.

Community Health Care Association of NYS, $25,000 to help community health centers add social determinants of health to newly created value-based payment systems.

Family Service League, Inc., $25,000 for an integrated behavioral health and primary health care model at the Family Center in Bay Shore.

Mental Health Association of Nassau County, $20,000 to train mental health professionals in evidence-based treatments for veterans.

New York Legal Assistance Group, $20,000 to provide free legal services at the Northport VA for veterans with mental health issues.

Veterans Yoga Project, $15,000 to promote healing and reduce the number of PTSD and other trauma-related adverse experiences affecting our veterans through mindful resilience yoga classes.