

WHAT DO YOU LOVE?

HE LOVES THE ARTS.

So he started a fund at the Long Island Community Foundation.

Year after year, Dale Lewis made sure that kids learned about music, dance, theater, and the visual arts. When he announced his retirement as executive director of Usdan Center for the Creative and Performing Arts, he opened the Arts Reach Fund at the Long Island Community Foundation.

“Launching a fund at the Long Island Community Foundation was a perfect way to advance the arts,” he explained. “At Usdan, I was on the receiving end of the Foundation’s support. Now I have an opportunity to give back.”

We are honored that he chose the Long Island Community Foundation to carry on his great work now and in the future. You can do the same.
