

THE LONG ISLAND UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST FUND 2022 GRANTS TOTALING $200,000

The Long Island Unitarian Universalist Fund is a field-of interest fund in the Long Island Community Foundation that promotes progressive social change. The fund was established by the Unitarian Universalist Veatch Program at Shelter Rock. Grants are made in response to competitive proposals received from Long Island nonprofit organizations. The proposals are reviewed by LICF staff and presented to an advisory committee, composed of members drawn from UU congregations across Long Island.

Adelphi University: $20,000 to pilot the Anti-Opressive Leadership Fellows Program.

ERASE Racism, Inc.: $20,000 to establish a broad coalition to advance culturally responsive education and equitable and inclusive school policies.

Health and Welfare Council of Long Island, Inc.: $25,000 to establish a diverse, multi-stakeholder coalition to address long-standing violence on Long Island.

Herstory Writers Workshop, Inc.: $20,000 to use storytelling by students and community members in Wyandanch to create a multi-faceted, proactive model for change.

Long Beach Latino Civic Association, Inc.: $20,000 to advocate for Latino immigrant rights and inclusion in Long Beach.

New Hour for Women and Children LI: $20,000 to increase the leadership and advocacy skills of women directly impacted by the criminal justice system.

Rural and Migrant Ministries, Inc.: $20,000 to organize and advocate for Long Island rural workers and their families.

SEPA Mujer, Inc.: $20,000 to strengthen the capacity of Latinas to advocate for policies that improve quality of life of immigrants.

Sound Justice Initiative: $10,000 to create a safety net for the formerly incarcerated.

Urban League of Long Island: $25,000 to advance the policy, practice, and system changes needed to achieve measurable results for Black Long Islanders.